WORK EXPERIENCE

Human Resources Manager – Bountiful Safaris | 2024 – 2025

- I lead HR strategy to support organisational growth, scalability, and long-term evaluation of the staff establishment.
- I translate corporate strategy into measurable business outcomes through structured performance and accountability frameworks.
- I hold responsibility for talent resourcing and workforce management, ensuring optimal staffing levels, capability alignment, and lean reporting structures.
- I oversee performance management and capacity building, recognising the fluid nature of the travel industry and the need for continuous skills development and adaptability.
- Employee relations, labour compliance, and policy governance remain under my direct oversight, in line with Kenyan labour laws and internal organisational risk controls.
- To support leadership decision-making, I leverage HR analytics and workforce data to guide cost management, retention, productivity, and organisational effectiveness.

Human Resources Manager – Islamic University of Kenya | 2020 – 2024

- I led the human capital transition and workforce realignment during the university's rebranding, ensuring academic and administrative stability throughout the change.
- I developed faculty-specific staffing models aligned with CUE guidelines, identified resourcing gaps, and presented these plans to the Board for concurrence before execution.
- I designed and rolled out the university's first integrated performance framework for academic staff, directly linking appraisal outcomes to my decisions on development and deployment.
- I advised to the Vice-Chancellor and the board on matters human capital, discerning which high-level governance issues required Board approval and which operational matters I managed independently.

- I modernized the staff contract lifecycle, establishing a disciplined approach to renewals, tenures, and confirmations for both academic and administrative wings.
- I managed internal reorganizations and staff deployments, taking the lead in reassigning personnel to optimize utility based on my assessment of institutional priorities.
- I controlled HR budget and payroll inputs, while providing management with data-driven reporting to guide financial and staffing decisions.
- I maintained direct oversight of all labour relations and regulatory compliance, ensuring the university stayed ahead of both general labour statutes and education sector requirements.

Human Resources Manager – Al Jamea Tus Saifiyah (Al Jamea University) | 2017 – 2019

- I established the foundational HR function, developing operational workflows, policies, and departmental processes.
- I architected the recruitment framework to attract, vet, and onboard specialised international and local academic talent.
- I designed and led induction and onboarding programs to accelerate staff integration and early productivity.
- I conducted a comprehensive job analysis exercise, ensuring accurate job descriptions, grading, and alignment with institutional structure.
- I implemented standardised performance appraisal cycles and individual development plans across all staff categories.
- I maintained the integrity of the staff database and personnel files, ensuring audit readiness and reliable HRIS records.
- I managed internal staff movements, contract monitoring, and timely renewals, while advising management on employee relations and disciplinary matters.
- I spearheaded the digitisation and automation of HR processes, improving service delivery, reporting, and operational efficiency.

HR Officer / Account Manager – Career Directions Ltd / (ITMC) | 2010 – 2015

- I provided high-level HR advisory services to a diverse portfolio of corporate clients across multiple sectors.
- I led large-scale talent acquisition projects for blue-chip companies, managing sourcing, selection, and placement end-to-end.
- I conducted comprehensive HR audits for clients, identifying gaps in labour law compliance and operational efficiency.
- I drafted bespoke HR policy manuals, employee handbooks, and employment contracts tailored to client needs.
- I supported clients through organisational restructuring and redundancy management processes in line with legal requirements.
- I facilitated corporate training programs on leadership, performance management, and soft skills development.
- I managed the full employee lifecycle for outsourced staff, ensuring seamless service delivery and client satisfaction.
- I advised C-suite executives on human capital alignment, workforce planning, and change management initiatives.

- I tracked and reported on HR metrics across client portfolios, demonstrating the impact of outsourced HR interventions.
- I acted as a mediator in complex industrial relations disputes, ensuring fair, compliant, and timely resolutions.
- I maintained continuous client engagement, providing ongoing operational HR support and ensuring alignment with evolving business objectives.
