

JULIANA MBEYU MWATATA
80108, KILIFI
0768322057 | JULIANA.MBEYU03@GMAIL.COM

Career Objective:

Motivated and detail-oriented Human Resource graduate with hands-on experience gained through HR internship and attachment roles in both public and private sector organizations. Skilled in recruitment and selection, employee records management, HRIS administration, onboarding, payroll support, training coordination, employee engagement, and HR reporting. Demonstrated ability to maintain confidential employee information, support compliance processes, analyse HR data, and contribute to workforce planning initiatives. Proven organizational and administrative skills with a strong understanding of Kenyan Labor practices and human resource management procedures. Eager to leverage practical HR knowledge, analytical abilities, and a commitment to professional excellence in an entry-level Human Resource position.

Skills

- Familiarity with HR management systems
- Proficiency in tools like Microsoft Excel for data tracking and reporting Recruitment & Talent Acquisition
- HR Administration & Records Management
- Payroll & Compliance Support
- HR Data Analysis & Reporting
- Communication & Interpersonal Skills

Experience

Human Resource Intern

Kenya Plant Health Inspectorate Service (KEPHIS)

Jan-2026- Apr-2026

- Maintained and updated employee records within the Human Resource Information System (HRIS), enhancing data accuracy, record accessibility, and digital filing efficiency.
- Supported end-to-end recruitment processes by screening applications, shortlisting qualified candidates, coordinating interviews, and facilitating communication between candidates and hiring managers.
- Coordinated onboarding and orientation programs for interns and industrial attachés, ensuring smooth integration into departmental operations and compliance with organizational procedures.
- Reviewed and reconciled statutory deduction records, including NSSF and NHIF/SHA contributions, as well as employee leave records, contributing to compliance and accurate workforce reporting.
- Assisted in maintaining confidential employee records and personnel files, ensuring adherence to organizational policies and data protection standards.
- Supported the Annual Training Needs Assessment (TNA) exercise by collecting, analysing, and categorizing departmental training requests, helping identify critical capacity-building priorities.
- Facilitated the administration and data collection of quarterly Employee Satisfaction Surveys, analysing responses and preparing visual reports to support management decision-making and employee engagement initiatives.
- Assisted HR officers in compiling, organizing, and validating documentation required for quarterly Public Sector Performance Contracting evaluations and compliance reporting.
- Prepared HR reports, updated staff databases, and performed administrative duties that improved workflow efficiency and strengthened human resource service delivery.
- Developed practical expertise in recruitment, employee records management, HR analytics, training administration, employee engagement, and public-sector human resource practices.

Human Resource Attache'May-2025- Aug-2025*Aid Africa HR Consultancy

- Assisted in the processing and management of employee payroll records, ensuring accuracy and timely salary preparation.
- Supported recruitment and selection processes, including screening applications, scheduling interviews, and coordinating candidate communication.
- Maintained and updated employee records, improving data accuracy and ensuring compliance with organizational record-keeping standards.
- Performed data entry and HR database updates, contributing to efficient employee information management.
- Assisted in office administration duties, including correspondence management, filing, report preparation, and document organization.
- Participated in disciplinary and employee relations processes by preparing documentation and supporting HR investigations where required.
- Conducted employee file audits and record verification exercises to enhance data integrity and accessibility.
- Supported onboarding activities for new employees, ensuring proper documentation and orientation procedures were completed.
- Took part in site visits to Umoja Rubber and Revital facilities, gaining practical exposure to workplace operations, employee management, and HR compliance practices.
- Assisted in the preparation of HR reports and workforce information summaries for management review and decision-making.
- Improved confidentiality and professionalism in handling sensitive employee information and HR documentation.
- Developed practical knowledge of Kenyan labour practices, human resource management procedures, and organizational policies

Human Resource Officer Trainee,Sept-2023 – Dec -2025*Coast Institute of Technology

- Developed interpersonal and professional communication abilities through group projects, presentations, and business communication classes.
- Acquired proficiency in HR software, Microsoft Office Suite, and online collaboration tools, with practical applications in coursework.
- Studied theories and practical applications for improving employee morale, teamwork, and leadership within organizations.
- Explored strategic HR practices, such as performance management, talent retention, and compensation strategies.
- Learned techniques for identifying talent, managing recruitment processes, and utilizing sourcing tools.
- Mastered corporate communication strategies, including professional report writing, email etiquette, and public speaking skills.

Education

Coast Institute of Technology

Diploma in Human Resource Management

Sept-2023 -2026

Ng'ombeni Girls Secondary School

KCSE.

Jan-2018 to Mar-2022

Reference

- Noel Kiriimi
Human Resource Administrator
KEPHIS
0721798929
- Daniel Lugwe
HR Coordinator
Aid Africa Consultancy
0706662096
- Dorothy Genya
Business Process Engineer
Ceva Logistics Ltd
mbeyud@gmail.com
0704378689