

MELZA JEPNGETICH

Biomedical Engineer | Technical Sales Engineer

Kenya | +254 727 658 968 | jepngetchmelza@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Biomedical engineering professional with a Diploma in Medical Engineering and hands-on experience in hospital equipment installation, calibration, maintenance and repair, as well as technical sales of medical equipment. Skilled at delivering product demonstrations, training clinicians, providing after-sales support and building lasting client relationships. Reliable, detail-oriented and effective both independently and in a team, in fast-paced healthcare environments.

CORE SKILLS

- Installation and calibration of biomedical equipment
- Preventive maintenance, troubleshooting and repair
- Equipment safety, efficiency and effectiveness evaluation
- Service history and records management
- Technical product demonstrations and presentations
- Clinician and end-user training
- Customer relationship management and after-sales support
- Order processing and quality compliance
- Problem solving and technical support
- Communication, teamwork and general administration

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Technical Sales Engineer | Tarumed Medical Supplies

Feb 2026 – Present

 - Deliver product demonstrations and explain technical features to clients in a simple, practical way.
 - Coordinate with engineering teams and customers to ensure solutions meet technical specifications.
 - Work with the sales department to analyse market needs and support the sales process.
 - Process customer orders while ensuring compliance with quality standards and delivery timelines.
 - Build long-term client relationships that promote trust, loyalty and repeat business.
 - Identify product improvement opportunities from customer feedback and market trends.
 - Provide after-sales support by diagnosing issues and guiding clients on proper product use.
- Technical Sales Engineer | Flopharm Healthcare Limited

Mar 2025 – Jan 2026

 - Prepared and delivered technical presentations explaining how products and services work.
 - Worked with customers and engineers to ensure equipment met system requirements.
 - Collaborated with the sales team to understand customer demand and provide sales support.
 - Secured orders, upheld product standards and ensured timely product delivery.
 - Established customer rapport and acceptance of products.
 - Planned product modifications to meet customer needs.
 - Helped clients resolve product usage problems.
 - Recommended new and improved products, explaining their cost-effectiveness.
- Biomedical Engineer | Kapsabet County Referral Hospital

Apr 2024 – Jan 2025

 - Installed and calibrated biomedical machines, equipment and software.
 - Evaluated the safety, efficiency and effectiveness of biomedical equipment and software.
 - Maintained and repaired biomedical machines and equipment.
 - Provided technical support to hospital staff as needed.
 - Kept up-to-date service histories for all biomedical equipment.
 - Trained clinicians and other personnel to use biomedical equipment safely and effectively.
 - Researched new materials, technologies and engineering aspects of biological processes and systems.

EDUCATION

- Diploma in Medical Engineering — Loitokitok KMTC

Mar 2022 – Feb 2024
- Certificate in Medical Engineering — Bomet KMTC

Sep 2019 – Feb 2022
- Kenya Certificate of Secondary Education (KCSE) — Ndivisi Girls Secondary School

2014 – 2018
- Kenya Certificate of Primary Education (KCPE) — Kapngetuny Primary School

2006 – 2013

LANGUAGES

Languages: English (Fluent), Kiswahili (Fluent)

REFEREES

Corenelius Kemboi — Director, Flopharm Healthcare Limited | 0706 219 834
Stephen Kiprono — Biomedical Engineer, Kapsabet County Referral Hospital | 0723 280 846
Alex Kipngetch — Director, Tarumed Medical Supplies | 0729 859 861