SUMMARY

I am a versatile and hardworking professional with extensive experience across multiple industries. With 6 years in the logistics and transportation industry in Kenya and over 5 years of experience as a E-Sports professional athlete , content creator and mentor, I have developed strong technical skills, physical endurance and attention to detail. I take pride in my reliability, adaptability and commitment to excellence in all tasks I undertake. My background in various hands-on roles has equipped me with practical problem-solving abilities and the capacity to work effectively both independently and as part of a team
