

NEUNUNA FAITH

P.O BOX 5-50103, MALAVA.

254796589572/254787815425

Faithneununa@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

As an aspiring HR professional, I offer a robust academic background in Human Resource Management coupled with practical experience as a loan officer and a general clerk. My coursework has honed my skills in recruitment and selection, employee training and development, performance management, and labor relations. I am eager to leverage this diverse background to contribute effectively to your HR team and drive organizational success.

WORK EXPERIENCE

8th June 2026-Ongoing- Human Resource Intern at Chester House Limited

- Handling the processing of payroll and ensures compliance with statutory requirements.
- Responsible for ensuring that all HR policies and procedures are compliant with Kenya labor law and aligned to HR best practices
- Assists in the disciplinary management and ensures proper procedure is followed
- Effectively manage staff leave days to ensure the liability is kept at a minimum number.
- Assisting in the coordination of staff recruitment, staff induction and orientation processes.
- Responsible for assisting in recruitment, selection and placement of the staff to ensure attainment of optimal staffing
- Nurture a positive working environment and define employee relations practices necessary to promote a high level of employee morale, engagement and motivation
- Responsible for staff compensation management, record keeping and maintenance of employee's files.
- Ensures that all employee files are compliant with necessary documentations and that all statutory matters are complied with.

27th October 2025- 27th April 2026: Human Resource Intern at Occidental Insurance Company Ltd

- Administrative support for the Hr. department such as updating employee records, screening resumes and scheduling interviews.
- Ensure company's compliance with the applicable regulating bodies including Government, NSSF, SHIF, NITA, KRA, HELB, etc.
- Assist with recruitment, payroll and employee onboarding, which can involve tasks like posting job ads, collecting data and preparing documents.

- Database management -update and maintain employee records, such as contract details and employment forms.
- Verifying and processing the HR & admin related payments in liaison with the accounting department.
- Filing Hr documents, employee contracts, medical records and performance appraisal
- Data entry-collect and organize information for payroll and other Hr processes.
- Onboarding of the new hire orientation and process check-outs for departing employees.
- Help organize and coordinate employee engagement activities and Hr events.
- Assist in opening of files for the new staff & the maintenance of personnel files.
- Provide administrative support to staff on different tasks relating to the HR department.
- Working on the monthly staff attendance report for the organization.
- Scheduled interviews and communicated with applicants
- Any other duties may be communicated from time to time by HR manager.

10th July 2023 to 15th October 2023: Loan Officer at Premier Credit Ruaka Branch

- Achieved reduction in accounts running into arrears through timely and positive collection strategies
- Consistently met daily disbursement targets, ensuring efficient financial operations
- Successfully recruited new clients monthly, contributing to meeting overall targets
- Maintained quality and stable portfolio, driving branch profitability by 15%
- Improved staff performance by 90% through comprehensive training on job responsibilities and Mambu system usage
- Ensure compliance with the delinquency escalation process by notifying clients when their loans fall due.

1st April 2022 to 15th May 2023: Office clerk at the Ministry of Education

- Facilitating the organization and dispatch of mail, ensuring timely delivery and receipts.
- Crafting and disseminating communications including memoranda, reports, letters, and other documentation, maintaining professional standards.
- Administering file management processes and providing comprehensive administrative support tailored to HR requirements.
- Monitoring and managing the inventory of office supplies, proactively replenishing items as needed to sustain operational efficiency within given guidelines.

- Responsively addressing incoming calls, documenting messages, and directing inquiries following policies.
- Coordinating the scheduling of meetings and proactively managing calendars for management personnel to optimize productivity and time management.
- Extending a courteous reception to office visitors and furnishing them with pertinent HR related information and assistance.

January 2022 to March 2022: General clerk at Children's office

- Assisting clients in a professional and empathetic manner.
- Recording and registering new cases accurately on the Case Record Sheet.
- Maintaining and updating the Case register to ensure completeness and accuracy of records.
- Performing data entry tasks in the Child Protection Information Management System (CPIMS) to keep information up-to-date and accessible.
- Facilitating mediation processes to resolve conflicts effectively and amicably.
- Managing filing systems to ensure easy retrieval and storage of documents.
- Making appropriate referrals to relevant services or agencies when needed, ensuring a seamless process for clients.

September 2021 to December 2021: Human Resource Attachment at the Ministry of Education

- Collaborate in processing employee payroll, ensuring accuracy and adherence to established procedures.
- Respond promptly to internal and external inquiries concerning HR matters, demonstrating professionalism and confidentiality.
- Maintain meticulous records of employee information, including leave entitlements and absences, in compliance with legal requirements.
- Assist in payroll processing and document employee compensation and benefits accurately and efficiently.
- Support the organization's HR training initiatives by coordinating programs, workshops, and seminars.

- Enter and update employee data in the HR database, ensuring data integrity and confidentiality.

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

- Communication skills
- Interpersonal skills
- Customer service skills
- Problem-solving skills
- Attention to details
- Computer skills

EDUCATION

Sep 2022 to Ongoing: The Cooperative University of Kenya

Bachelor of Commerce majoring in Human Resource Management.

Sep 2019 to Feb 2022 : The Cooperative University of Kenya

Diploma of Human Resource Management

Feb 2014 to Nov 2017 : SAMITSI GIRLS HIGH SCHOOL

Kenya Certificate of Secondary Education [KCSE]

Jan 2005 to Oct 2013 : St Mary's Immaculate Chimoi Primary

Kenya Certificate of Primary Education [KCPE]

REFEREES

Luke Musee

Human Resource Manager

Occidental Insurance Company Limited

Contact-+254 732 590241

lukemusee@occidental-ins.com

Lydia Mutegi

County Director of Education

Ministry of Education

+254722444669

Joyce Achieng

Human Resource Officer

The Monarch Group

0722345735

