Human Resource

Recruitment-focused HR professional currently supporting end-to-end hiring at an HR consultancy, working with clients across a range of industries. From sourcing and shortlisting candidates to conducting screening interviews, managing onboarding, and maintaining HRIS records, I've built a strong track record of high-volume successful placements. I hold a BSc in Human Resource Management from Moi University and bring the organization, communication, and adaptability needed to keep fast-paced, client-driven recruitment running smoothly.
