Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: APPLICATION FOR THE POSITION OF HUMAN RESOURCE ASSISTANT

I hereby express interest on the above-named position as advertised through your official website. I hold a diploma in Human Resource Management from the University of Nairobi, bachelor's degree in commerce (HR option) from KCA University. I have also completed my CHRP Course from the College of Human Resource Management and waiting for certification. I am also a member of the Institute of Human Resource Management (IHRM) in good standing. In addition, I have got more than 8 years of experience in clerical, Human Resource and Administration roles. With knowledge in computer applications, Human Resource Management Information System (HRMIS), submission of statutory, payroll processing and generating of various HR reports.

I am confident that my proactive approach, strong organizational, interpersonal, reporting and communication skills and commitment to HR best practices make me an ideal candidate for this position as I commit to bring my dedication and evolving expertise to your team and contribute to your continued success. I look forward to the possibility of discussing my qualifications further.

Yours Sincerely,

Jane Agik
