

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am excited to submit my application for an opportunity within your esteemed organisation. With over one year of experience gained during my internship at Sun International, where I performed duties aligned to an HR Officer role, I am confident in my ability to contribute effectively to your team.

I have hands-on experience using systems such as PeopleSoft for capturing and maintaining employee data, as well as time and attendance systems including Kronos and IQ Tech for scheduling employees and managing meal intervals. I have also handled payroll-related queries, including underpayments and overpayments, ensuring timely and accurate resolutions.

In addition, I have been involved in the full recruitment cycle, including advertising vacancies on Direct Hire, scheduling interviews, conducting interviews, preparing offer letters, and supporting on boarding and induction processes by preparing starter documentation.

My experience also includes observing conciliation and arbitration proceedings at the CCMA, attending Employment Equity meetings, participating in shop steward and management meetings as a minute taker, and assisting with compiling weekly and monthly reports.

I believe my strong administrative background, attention to detail, ability to manage confidential information, and professional approach would make me a valuable addition to your organisation.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how I can contribute to your organisation.

Best Regards,
Bonga Mhlongo
