TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

RE: RECOMMENDATION – FAITH NDUKU JAMES

The above named who is a student at Kenya institute of Management, was attached at the City Council of Nairobi in the Human Resource Department from 8th August, to 8th October, 2011.

He covered the following areas:-

1. HUMAN RESOURCE RECEPTION

- Receiving and recording incoming mails.
- Dispatching outgoing mails
- Collection of Council's declaration forms and performance appraisal
- Filling of the outgoing mails copies

2. APPOINTMENT & RETIREMENT

- Auctioning of the Council's minutes on Special duty, Risk allowance, Non practicing allowance and other allowances
- Clearance of officers going out of the country on private visits
- Issuing retirement notices to the affected/concerned officers
- Correction of personnel data e.g. date of birth, change of names and prefix

3. TRAINING

- Responding to staff issues on training
- Facilitating officers going on training on self or Council's sponsorship or otherwise
- Attending to attachment and research cases for officers and ongoing students

4. DISCIPLINE

- Council's disciplinary policies
- The relevant laws applied including Collective Bargaining Agreement and the Public Service Commission Regulations

5. SALARIES & PERSONNEL REGISTRY

- Computing of personnel remunerations e.g. allowances, retirement dues
- Filing of computer forms or variations
- Raising of vouchers for various payment auctioning Council's minutes
- Folioing and filling of documents
- Issue of personnel files on request by different file users e.g. Human Resources Management personnel, Chief Administrative officers

6. MEDICAL & CONFIDENTIAL REGISTRY

- Filing and keeping of confidential files under key and lock
- Writing of request on Ex-gratia for approval by Ministry of Local Government
- Making inquiries over officers who have been injured while on duty
- Responding to clients advocates on issues of treatment and compensation

During the period of attachment she showed outstanding character, personal initiative, integrity and dedication in her work. I find the student a team player, highly motivated and enthusiastic to learn new things and work with little supervision.
